

To help your child learn, the school expects parents to

- Be courteous with everyone
- Support the school's behaviour codes so that everyone can feel safe and secure in school
- Make sure your child attends school regularly, is at school on time, and is collected on time at the end of the day
- Make sure your child comes to school appropriately dressed and equipped with the things to help their learning
- Let school know promptly of any obstacles to your child attending school or any problems that might get in the way of their learning
- Keep up to date with information about your child's learning, school visits and events, attending when appropriate
- Encourage your child to learn at school, at home and in the wider community

Home School Agreement

Your child's learning drives everything we do in school. We all know that a child learns best when parents and school work together in partnership. In this way, we can make sure children are able to take advantage of the learning opportunities in school and in the community in order to be well prepared for the rest of their lives.

To be successful we all need to be clear about the roles we can play to ensure this happens.

This agreement between you, your child and the school has been drawn up in consultation with parents, staff, children and governors.

To support your child's learning, the school will

- Be courteous with everyone
- Plan interesting and challenging learning experiences for your child, taking into account what they already know and understand
- Be clear about our expectations and goals for your child
- Keep you informed on a regular basis about your child's learning
- Celebrate with you and the wider community your child's achievements and successes
- Offer you opportunities to be involved in your child's learning in and around school
- Plan and deliver opportunities to support you as a parent to enhance your child's learning
- Work with you to develop your child's independence
